

Homeward Bound

Follow my heart and nose so true

Back to the one and only you

Home to my house and yard that's the best

Back to the place I love above all the rest

Waiting and wondering for you to appear

Holding out hope for one so
dear

Paws don't fail to get me home

To the place where I belong

Guide me well until the day

When I can return and always stay

To be blessed with my family near

And all the ones I hold so
dear

No more my heart will cry

Bring me home, dear Lord I pray

For that is where I want to
